

StudySC is an online resource provided and maintained by the South Carolina State Library. It is a searchable repository of information and links for history, geography, culture, places, and people of South Carolina. From artist biographies to Native American tribes and Civil War timelines, get it all at StudySC.

StudySC is an online resource provided and maintained by the South Carolina State Library. It is a searchable repository of information and links for history, geography, culture, places, and people of South Carolina. From artist biographies to Native American tribes and Civil War timelines, get it all at StudySC.

Additional Features:

- Interactive county map with information about cities, towns, people, and history of each county
- South Carolina Glossary
- Lesson Plans
- South Carolina Book Awards lists
- Content is searchable by grade levels and supports South Carolina curriculum standards
- SC topics are featured and updated twice weekly on the landing page.

Additional Features:

- Interactive county map with information about cities, towns, people, and history of each county
- South Carolina Glossary
- Lesson Plans
- South Carolina Book Awards lists
- Content is searchable by grade levels and supports South Carolina curriculum standards
- SC topics are featured and updated twice weekly on the landing page.

For questions or suggestions for additional content, contact the Discus Office:

Email: discusoffice@statelibrary.sc.gov

Phone: (803) 545-0201

For questions or suggestions for additional content, contact the Discus Office:

Email: discusoffice@statelibrary.sc.gov

Phone: (803) 545-0201

KNOW WHERE YOU LIVE

studysc.org

KNOW WHERE YOU LIVE

studysc.org

